

A Moment in Time

Discover the National Weather Center and Oklahoma City National Memorial & Museum

Monday, March 4
1:00–6:00 pm
$55.00 | Limited to 50 Guests

Take a journey through Oklahoma’s roller coaster climate as we tour the National Weather Center in Norman. Get a better understanding of events occurring in Earth’s atmosphere over a wide range of time and space as we get a glimpse of the extensive research taking place in Oklahoma! Then we pause for a Moment in Time at the Oklahoma City National Memorial and Museum. Go beyond the experience and gain exclusive access to the archives and visit the Uncover-Discover Lab which teaches lessons learned from the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building bombing. Work independently, then come together as a group to find solutions to their challenges – just as first responders to the Oklahoma City bombing had to work together in teams to save lives and investigate the crime.

A Moment In Time Illuminated

Monday, March 4 & Tuesday, March 5
7:00–9:00 pm
$12.50 | Limited to 20 Guests

Visit the Oklahoma City National Memorial & Museum Symbolic grounds at night, and experience the peaceful serenity of this award-winning memorial, illuminated. Take a path of remembrance through downtown Oklahoma City towards the hallowed grounds, experiencing along the way all the history and revival that make Oklahoma City great. Learn first-hand what we mean by the “Oklahoma Standard” as you walk the path of remembrance for this national tragedy.

Mansions & Marvels

Wednesday, March 6
1:30–5:30 pm
$39.50 | Limited to 14 Guests

This 4-hour tour will take you on a special VIP journey to some of Oklahoma City’s most famous residences. Visit the home of “The Father of Oklahoma City,” Henry Overholser, and take a look inside this grand 12,000 square foot Châteauesque-styled mansion. We’ll also stop at the 100-year old Greek Revival Style Hefner Mansion at St. Luke’s; newly renovated and housing fascinating tidbits from one of Oklahoma’s most powerful and philanthropic citizens, we are sure you will be impressed. From there, you’ll enjoy a special VIP access tour of the stately Oklahoma Governor’s Mansion! Finish your journey with a walk through living history at the 10-acre Harn Homestead. Let Destination Oklahoma be your guide beyond the velvet ropes to visit these beautiful one-of-a-kind houses that so many great Oklahomans have called home.

A Streetcar Named ...

Tuesday, March 5
1:00–3:00 pm
$12.50 | Limited to 20 Guests

Travel through Oklahoma City’s uniquely diverse and historic districts linked together by Oklahoma City’s new modern streetcar system! Hop on (and off) to visit several attractions, landmarks, and art installations on this guided streetcar tour. Visit Downtown to see the Oklahoma City Museum of Art’s 55-foot Chihuly glass tower and Chesapeake Energy, home of the Oklahoma City Thunder. The Midtown district connects the hustle and bustle of downtown with the stately historic neighborhoods to its north. Rev up your engines as you head down Automobile Alley, originally home to the city’s car dealerships, a fact that is immortalized in the neon signs that still hang from its original buildings. Loop through Bricktown to hear about the iconic moments, people, and places that have shaped Oklahoma City from pioneer settlement to the modern streetcar.
